

WHY GENERATIONS?

Our Vision

To make sure our teachers and staff are here to serve you and to help every child become an exceptional person and the dancer he or she dreams of becoming.

Our Mission

To nurture the child's spirit through the art of dance.

Our Core Values

Generations was built upon Judeo-Christian principles. We are committed to fostering discipline, artistry and teamwork while maintaining age-appropriate movements and costuming.

GENERAL INFORMATION

VALUES: We heavily value age-appropriate costuming and music choices.

PARENT OBSERVATION: Parents are invited into the classroom to view classes once per season during a designated Parent Observation Week.

SPRING RECITAL: Our recital and dress rehearsal are held in May at Westerville Central High School.

CENTRAL LOCATION: Generations' campus is located in the heart of Uptown Westerville and is within walking distance to many local coffee shops, restaurants, and more!

REGISTRATION: Create an account using our online parent portal to explore available classes, set up trials, view class fees, make payments, & more.

OUR PROGRAM

- TODDLER CLASSES
- Creative Movement (ages 2.5 - 5)
 - Tumble Tots (ages 3-5)
 - Hip Hop for Tots (ages 3-5)
 - Seasonal Camps

COMBINATION CLASSES

Combo classes are available in a variety of styles and levels beginning at age 4 and are a great way to try a variety of styles! Level 1 combos will perform 1 dance and levels 2 & 3 will perform 2 dances in our spring recital.

ELEMENTARY, MIDDLE, & HIGH SCHOOL

Our program offers varying levels of ala carte classes in ballet, tap, jazz, hip hop, contemporary, acrobatics, musical theatre, and more!

COMPETITIVE DANCE & MORE

Generations offers a full range of competition classes for students with previous training. We are also home to Ballet Allonge', a more intense ballet program for students interested in classical training.
